

Tony's done it again!

Announcing the official launch of Tony's two latest books – one has been published by British publisher, Fonthill and the other is published by Australian publisher Rosenberg. Come and help us celebrate his achievement with a tipple or two at our favourite independent bookshop – Avid Reader at West End.

"Paddy Finucane and the Legend of the Kenley Wing" & "RAAF Bombers over Germany 1941 – 42"

Who - Author, Tony Cooper, being interviewed by Journalist Tony Ryan

Master of Ceremonies - Professor Sidney Dekker (Head of Humanities at Griffith University)

When - Wednesday 10th of May, 2017 from 6pm to 8pm

Where - Avid Reader Bookshop, Boundary St, West End

Cost - Free

RSVP - Please register your attendance by going to the Avid Reader's Event page to book your spot. Numbers are limited to 120 so please register ASAP to avoid disappointment!

Queries - Phone Tony on 0401 819 638 or Jane on 0431 477 545

A light supper of wine and cheese will be served

Afterwards Tony and Jane are planning to go next door for a casual dinner at Chop Chop Chang's – please feel welcome to join us!

