To our Fighter and Bomber Association members across the country,

The ANZAC Day march is an event I've always cherished; a chance to honour sacrifice, but also to reconnect with those of you upon whose shoulders we now stand. Sadly, 2020 will be different, but no less important.

I will be dragging the fire pit to the end of my driveway at dawn and marking ANZAC Day 2020 with my family, complete with a gunfire breakfast. Those of us who serve in Air Combat Group today will have you all squarely in our thoughts on Saturday.

Please take the time to check in on each other, and I look forward to twice the stories in 2021.

Lest We Forget,

Timothy Alsop
