

Arthur Budd. WU 3253

AG Schelan

A. B. Meach

Fred Snow N.S.W.

Information . . .

If you require any information, Ring . . .

A. R. POWER, Secretary.

Home: BL 1205.

Office: BF 1321 (Ext. 238).

J. RISELEY, Publicity Officer.

Home: MY4084.

Office: BF 1711.

P. McCARTHY, Committee.

MJ 1035.

458 SQUADRON R.A.A.F.

(W.A. Flight)

ALL STATES RE-UNION
and Squadron Conference

PERTH, WESTERN AUSTRALIA
APRIL, 1958

Vertical handwritten signature

LEN McCARDLEY.
NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS
1915 Gungahlin
BA 9633
1915 Gungahlin
BA 5684

al Wheat Le Bot Dorinda

Official Itinerary

East is East, and West is West
But this is where they meet.
And in the good old Squadron style,
Our Visitors, we greet.
"WELCOME TO THE WEST."

Peter Alexander

WEDNESDAY, 23rd APRIL—

Official date for the arrival of visitors who will be met on arrival and escorted to a selected hotel or to the homes of W.A. members. No functions have been arranged for this day to allow visitors to settle in.

THURSDAY, 24th APRIL—

Scenic Tour. Leaves Shaftesbury Hotel, Stirling Street, Perth, at 9 a.m. sharp. Includes inspection of B.H.P. Steel Rolling Mill and Kwinana Oil Refinery. Lunch at Hotel Rockingham. Through foothills of the Darling Ranges to Canning Dam and then back to Perth.

In the evening Squadron Conference will be held at Air Force House, 207 Adelaide Terrace, Perth, commencing at 8 p.m. Those members who are not attending conference in an official capacity as delegates will be free to seek individual entertainment while visiting ladies will be entertained by the Ladies Auxiliary.

FRIDAY, 25th APRIL (Anzac Day)—

Dawn Service at Kings Park War Memorial. Federal President will lay a wreath on behalf of the Squadron. All members and their wives are invited to attend the ceremony.

Anzac March. Fall in at 9.30 a.m. in Irwin Street (near St. George's Terrace) Perth. Visitors will assemble outside the Shaftesbury Hotel at 9.20 a.m. and will be conducted to the "fall in" point. By special arrangement the Squadron will head the Air Force contingent this year.

Anzac Reunion. Will commence at the conclusion of the march. In the pavilion of the East Perth Tennis Club, North East corner of Wellington Square. Reunion concludes at 6 p.m.

Evening is free to all members.

While the Reunion is in progress visiting ladies will be entertained by the Ladies Auxiliary.

SATURDAY, 26th APRIL—

Day is entirely free for visitors, but in the evening the Squadron Ball will be held in the 16th Infantry Drill Hall, Mounts Bay Road (off William St.), Perth, commencing at 8 p.m. Dancing, Floor Shows, Novelties, an excellent supper complete with liquid refreshment. Merv. Rowston's Band until 12 midnight or as indicated by popular acclaim.

SUNDAY, 27th APRIL—

Squadron Picnic to Yanchep. Assembly point Shaftesbury Hotel, Stirling Street, Perth. Departing 9.45 a.m. Bring the wife and kiddies. The Anzac Golf Cup will be competed for by those interested and contestants will join the main party at Yanchep at the conclusion of the tournament.