NAME BROOCHES

Please collect your name brooches as soon as you have settled in.

You will find them on tables in the Reception Office of the Yaldara Motel, Lyndoch. An SA Flight member will be in attendance there from 3.30 to 6.25 pm.

Those not staying at Yaldara who require transport will find details about this on page 20.

The hand-engraved brooches have been made and provided by SA Flight member, John Excell.

Please collect yours before the Reunion commences. There's a lot of us around and it's our way of knowing you've arrived.

WELCOMING RECEPTION

As we said, there's a lot of us around so we can't hold the reception in the restaurant as originally planned. Instead we are using the downstairs conference area of the Yaldara Motel which is a good thing because we want you to use this as your club and general meeting place during the Reunion. We are calling it THE SERGEANTS MESS. You'll find more information about this on page 19.

The main entrance is within the motel complex. Turn right as you enter and it is at the end of the front wing of units between Rooms 28 and 29. The door is marked SERGEANTS MESS and there are fairly steep steps leading down to the conference area. There is also a rear entrance without steps outside the complex.

The Reception commences at 6.30 pm. Drinks and savouries will be served. Prior to its ending at 8 pm, there will be a brief ceremony of remembrance for departed comrades. For those wanting dinner, the motel's restaurant is well worth a visit. It can seat 80 people at a time. For those wishing to bat on, the bar will remain open for the evening.

THE YALDARA MOTEL

Monday, October 21

VISIT TO RAAF BASE, EDINBURGH

There are four coaches taking us to Edinburgh, a journey of about 45 minutes. You'll be advised what coach to take.

One coach leaves the Weintal Motel, Tanunda, at 9 am, picks up at Tanunda Hotel five minutes later and fills at the Yaldara Motel, Lyndoch, leaving there at 9.15 am and arriving at Edinburgh at approximately 10 am.

A second coach leaves the Barossa Motor Lodge at 9.10 am and travels direct to Edinburgh.

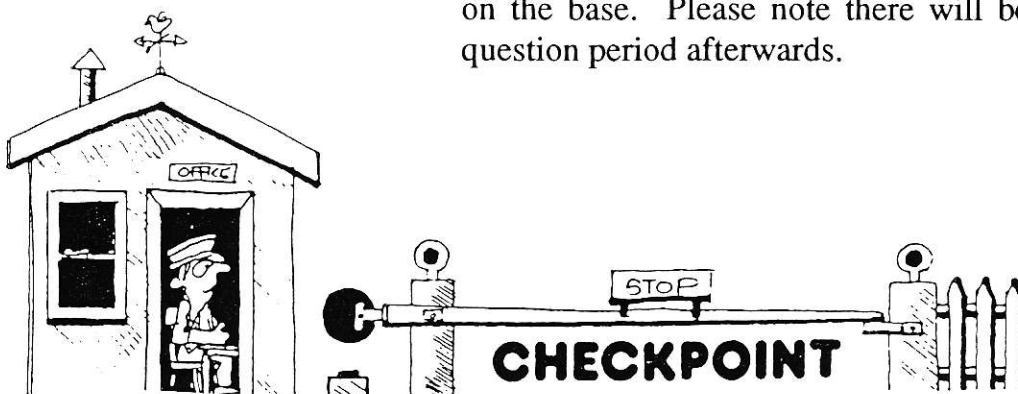

The other two coaches leave from Yaldara at 9.05 and 9.10 am, the first one stopping to pick up at Lyndoch Caravan Park on the way.

Edinburgh is one of the largest air force bases in Australia and the home of the RAAF's Long Range Maritime Patrol aircraft — the P3C Orion.

Since we arranged this visit, the Fincastle Trophy Competition, which was to be held in New Zealand this year, has been transferred to Edinburgh. This is a competition between the air forces of Commonwealth countries who are awarded points for dummy attacks on submarines. The RAF will be flying Nimrods, the Canadians Auroras and the RAAF and RNZAF have Orions.

This year's Fincastle is being held, would you believe, during the week of our visit so there will have to be some restrictions on visiting No 92 Wing which will be explained hereunder. However, since we were a Coastal Command squadron, the Base is giving us special treatment.

E.T.A. Edinburgh is 10 am. We get off the coaches at the Officers Mess. This is a comfort stop. From there it is a very short walk to the Base Cinema where, at 10.25 am, the Commander, Maritime Patrol Group, Air Commodore Stafford James AFC, will welcome us and the Base Commander, Group Captain Allan Gilbert, will personally give us a presentation, with slides, describing all the units on the base. Please note there will be a question period afterwards.

RAAF EDINBURGH — 2

Ex 458 pilots will be interested to know that Group Captain Gilbert is one of the few navigator aircraft captains. He flew in Nimrods. Ex 458 navigators should wipe those smug grins off their faces.

At 11.15 am we board the coaches again and commence a tour of the Base. The coaches will be equipped with PA systems and there will be an RAAF officer on each of them to act as tour guide.

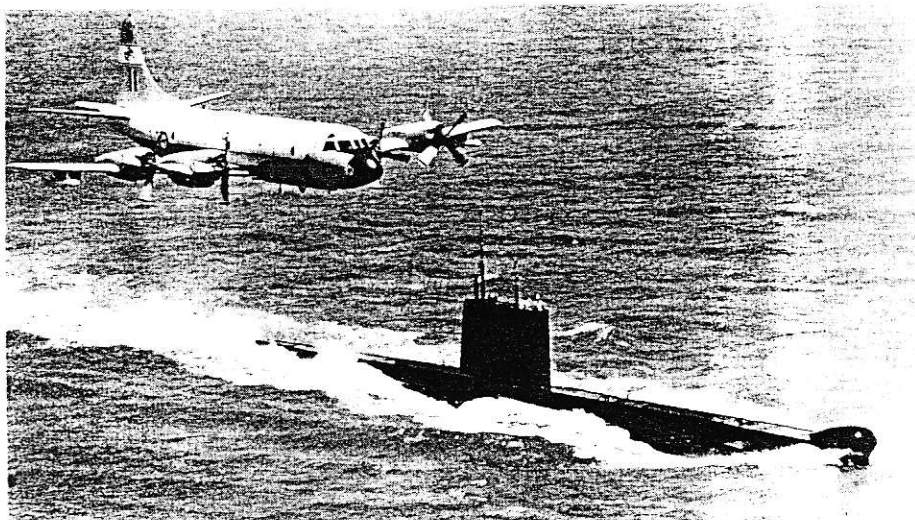

RAAF Edinburgh is a small town in itself with all amenities and a population of some 2,000 including about 200 civilian personnel. As well as the four squadrons of No 92 Wing (Nos 10, 11, 292 and 492 Squadrons), and No 24 'City of Adelaide' Squadron, it has a Base Support Wing, a Recruit Training Unit, an Airmen Aircrew Flying Training School, an Aircraft Research and Development Unit and an Electronic Warfare Operational Support Unit.

At the end of this tour we will disembark from the coaches at the Sergeants Mess (theirs not ours) where, from 11.45 am to 12.55 pm, a buffet lunch will be served that can be eaten in the mess with the NCOs or in a sheltered outside area. A section of the mess bar will be open and marked '458 Members Only'. Glasses, carafes of red and white wine and orange juice and jugs of beer can be obtained there without charge. The SA Flight will pay the drinks bill afterwards.

Then into the coaches again but this time the men and the ladies go separately. The reason for this blatant sexism is the Fincastle Trophy Competition. The RAAF is bending over backwards to allow us to inspect the Orions but this is their busiest time and numbers must be drastically reduced. So the visit to operational areas is for men only. Once there, they will split into three groups and visit alternately a P3C Orion; the A.R.D.U. hangar with F18's, Macchi and other trainers, Black Hawk helicopter and other aircraft; and the Life Support Equipment Section with dinghies, the modern version of the Mae West and other things you never dreamed of.

THE P3C ORION

Just to even things out, the ladies will be taken to the Police Dog Section for one of the highlights of the visit, a display by the dogs. Originally, everyone was to go but, because the men are being given special treatment, they will be left out of the visit to the Police Dog Section. It's for ladies only. So there!

A demonstration will also be put on for the ladies at the Fire Section.

We all end up together at the Officers Mess again at 2.30 pm. Another comfort stop. Between 2.45 pm and 3 pm we leave the Base.

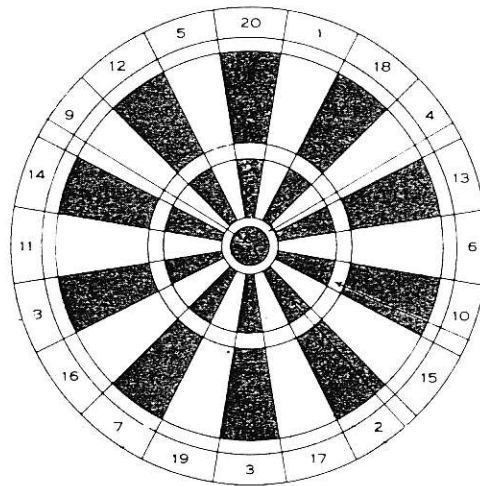

We should be back in our billets by around 3.45 pm.

The bar in our own Sergeants Mess at Yaldara will be open from 6.30 pm to approximately 10.30 pm. (See next page).

Dinner will also be served in the beautiful Yaldara restaurant. There are other good restaurants, too, around the Barossa including (close to home) Tanunda, Lyndoch and Jacobs Creek. You'll find useful leaflets in your folder.

'DICK THE TICK' DARTS TROPHY

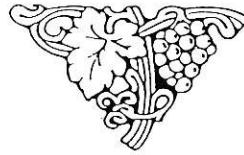

During the course of the evening, the 'Dick The Tick' darts tournament will be held in the Sergeants Mess.

Eric Munkman will be bringing the time-honoured 'Dick The Tick' Trophy with him.

It's up for grabs.

Tuesday, October 22

The morning is free for relaxation or for visiting the many places of interest the Barossa has to offer.

There's a note about that on page 21.

LAKESIDE BARBECUE

This commences at noon beside a lake surrounded by vineyards and concludes at about 2 pm.

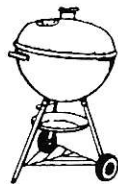

The venue is the entrance to the Reception Hall at the Chateau Yaldara Winery about 2 km down the road from the Yaldara Motel. (Pictured below).

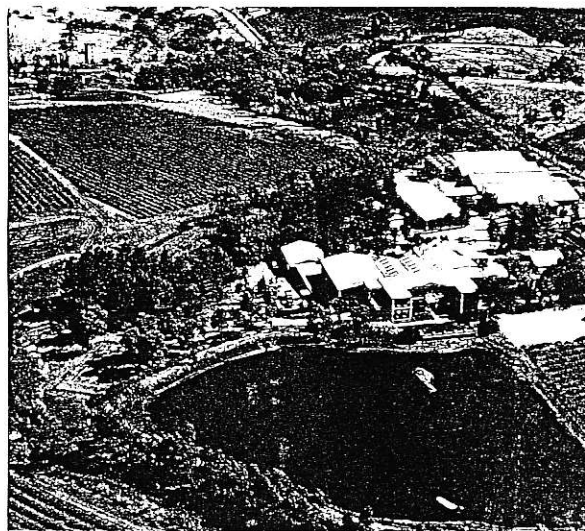

Food will be served just inside the entrance hall. There will be tables outside on the lawn overlooking the lake, a very picturesque setting.

The menu will be lamb cutlets, marinated beef, venison hamburgers, sausages, a selection of salads, gateaux and a selection of sweets.

Carafes of red and white wine and orange juice will be served.

Beer and spirits can be purchased at the bar.

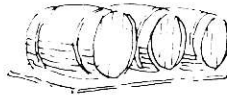

NIGHT WINERY TOUR AND BISTRO DINNER

This starts from 6.30 pm at the Cellar Door of Chateau Yaldara, the main entrance and visiting area of the Winery.

For those not staying at Lyndoch, a courtesy coach will be provided (as mentioned on Page 20) leaving the Tanunda motels from 6 pm and returning to Tanunda from the Winery at 10.30 pm.

Champagne and hors d'oeuvres will be served in the wine tasting area on arrival. The winery tours will be conducted in groups of about 40. (There are about 140 people registered for this.) You will be taken through the winery storage areas and the impressive baroque Chateau with its remarkable collection of porcelain and period furniture.

Dinner commences at 7.30 pm in the beautiful Bistro with its garden setting. Main course is sea perch with banana and pineapple, nut sauce; chicken breast pocketed with mandarin and lack schinken with champagne and mustard seed sauce; pork and prune noisette wrapped in bacon with cider and apple sauce. For dessert there is rum and raisin chocolate mousse and apple and apricot strudel.

DEDICATION OF 458 SQUADRON RAAF RESERVE RENMARK

Coaches leave at 9 am for the two and a half hour journey to Renmark.

One coach picks up first at Lyndoch Caravan Park, fills at Yaldara and proceeds to Renmark.

A second coach fills at Yaldara.

A third coach leaves Yaldara with 25 vacant seats and fills at Barossa Motor Lodge before proceeding to Renmark.

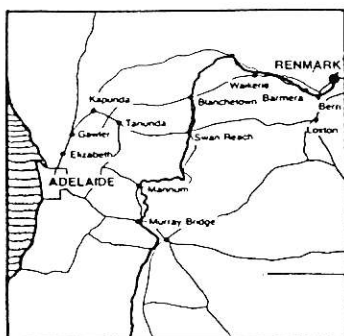

The fourth coach picks up first at Tanunda Hotel, then Barossa Motor Lodge, then Weintal.

The 220 km journey is mostly along the Sturt Highway (Route 20). After leaving Truro, we descend into scrub plains which extend for about 45 km until we reach the Murray at Blanchetown. Then another 40 km of mallee plain until we re-join the Murray at Waikerie. Watch out for the Waikerie Gliding Club on your left before you get there. We follow the Murray from Waikerie via Kingston, Barmera and Berri to Renmark.

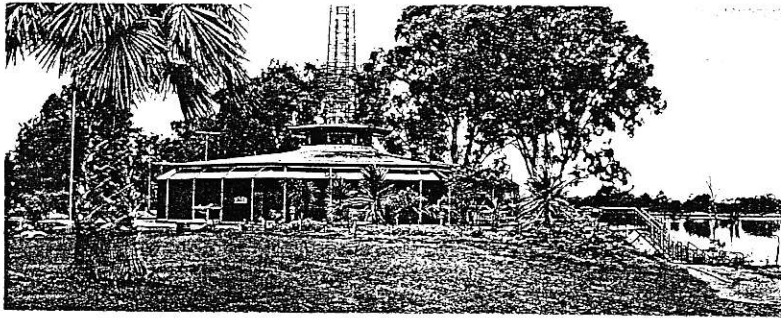

At Renmark we are the guests of Fee and Ian Showell.

Our E.T.A. is 11.30 am at the tower and Information Centre on Ian's ambitious and imaginative Jane Eliza Estate. Headquarters of his Libba Libba Houseboats can be seen nearby. We will be welcomed there by the Mayor of Renmark.

At the centre, where tea and coffee will be available, you will see a large scale model of the estate. There will also be an original painting of a 458 Squadron

Wellington shining its Leigh Light on a fishing fleet off Gibraltar. This was part of a remarkable exhibition of over 30 large oil paintings of operational aircraft in World War II by Renmark artist, Frank Harding. They were first exhibited in Adelaide last year at Legacy House and further exhibitions are planned. Frank Harding died this year. The 458 painting is on loan courtesy of Adelaide Legacy and Frank's widow, Nan Harding.

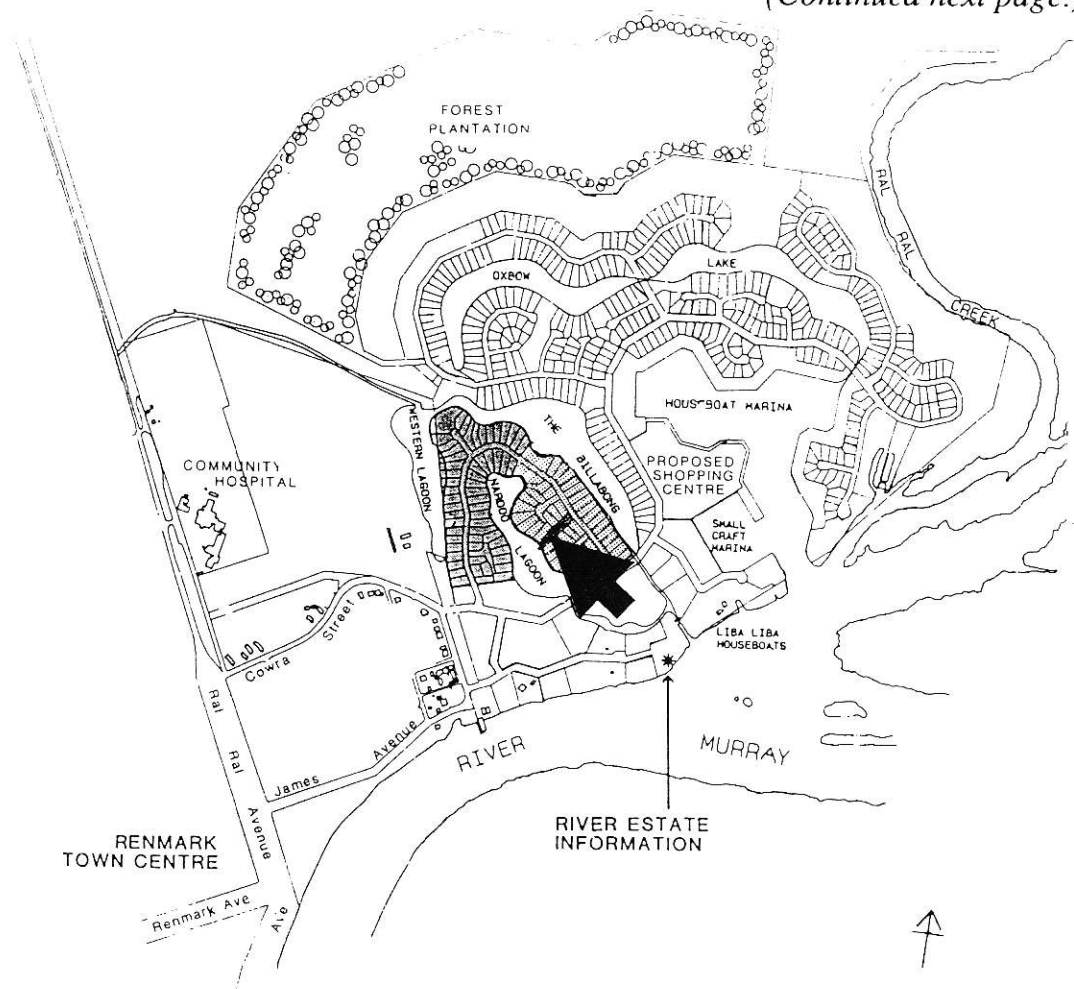

The
Information
Centre

From the Centre we are taken to the 458 RAAF Reserve. Ian has prepared this with lavish and loving care. He has planted lawn, trees — including over 50 palm trees — and the petunias and 50 rose bushes should be in full bloom by this time. As well as the Australian flag, the Union Jack and the New Zealand and Canadian flags will fly to represent nationalities serving on the Squadron.

Renmark children whose fathers served in the RAAF will have planted most of the trees. We are also remembering here the many RAAF dead who came from Renmark and the Riverland, including Dam Buster Bob Hay. The Reserve has been handed over to the Renmark Corporation for perpetual maintenance.

RENMARK — 3

Speakers at the ceremony will be the Mayor of Renmark, Alderman C. R. Thomas, and Ian Showell. The 458 President will then call on Peter Alexander to dedicate the 50th Anniversary plaque and monument.

After the ceremony we return to the Information Centre for a BBQ lunch.

We board our coaches at 3 pm for the journey back to the Barossa.

BAROSSA FARE

This is an unadvertised addition to the programme and (unless you're a quick reader) you will first hear about it at the Welcoming Reception on Sunday evening.

Because the Barossa is known for its food as well as its wine, Chateau Yaldara have offered to put on an unusual food and wine tasting at its Cellars, commencing at 7.30 pm.

If you're interested you'll be up for an additional $25 per head and you must book for it by Monday morning at the Yaldara Motel office ('phone 24 4268).

The minimum needed to put this on is 30 people. If we don't reach this number, the event will be cancelled.

The Chateau's winemaker, Jim Irvine, will select various foods — all produced in the Barossa Valley — most suited to enhance the flavours and styles of the various premium wines to be served.

For starters, the Lakewood champagne will accompany fresh garden strawberries and kiwi fruit. Then, with other wines, you get into the famous Valley metwursts, bockwursts, sausages, dill cucumbers, pickled and smoked fish and fresh crusty breads.

Room needs to be left for the cheeses, strudels, binenstick cakes, biscuits and chocolates.

The location is the Turret Bar near the main cellar door and Bistro of Chateau Yaldara Winery.

Thursday, October 24

For most of us this is a free day and an opportunity to explore the Barossa if you feel so inclined.

If you do, check page 21 and the leaflets in your folder.

THE SQUADRON CONFERENCE

This commences at 9.30 am in an annexe of the Sergeants Mess, i.e. the conference room of the Yaldara Motel.

Squadron Council officers and representatives from all Flights are to attend.

Morning tea will be served.

SQUADRON GOLF TROPHY

The golf tournament will be held at the Gawler Golf Club with first tee-off at 1.15 pm.

Foursomes, threesomes, twosomes? Ask Sportsmaster Bill Cribb. He'll have the list ready by then and will probably pin it up on the Sergeants Mess notice board.

Bert Ravenscroft is bringing the Squadron's Golf Cup with him.

It's up for grabs, too.

SQUADRON BOWLS

This will be at the pleasant Lyndoch Bowling Club from 2 pm on.

The Lyndoch Bowling Club invites other non-playing 458 members to come and watch the games and be their guests at the afternoon tea which will be provided courtesy of the Club. Drinks can also be purchased at the bar. Creams optional. Bowls shoes of course.

For further details, Bert Oliver.

THE SQUADRON DINNER

This is the last function, the climax, of our Golden Anniversary Reunion.

It will be held in the Reception Hall of Chateau Yaldara.

(Tuesday's BBQ was held outside the entrance to it).

The time is 7.00 pm for 7.30 pm.

Two special coaches will leave Tanunda motels from 6.30 pm and also pick up at the Yaldara Motel on the way. There is no charge for this.

Drinks can be purchased at the bar from 7 to 7.30 pm. After that they will be served at the tables. Carafes of red and white wine and orange juice will be already on the tables.

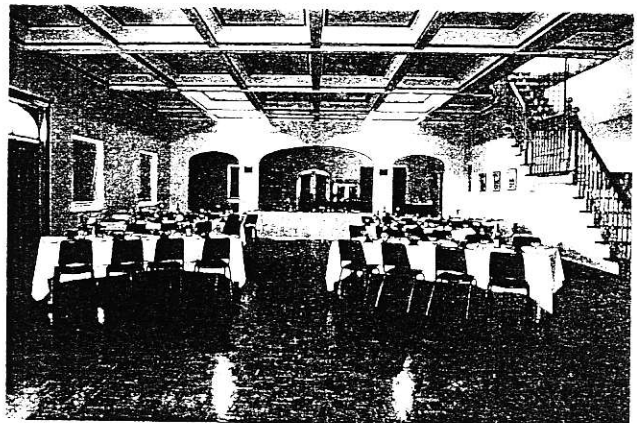

There will be two official tables with name places on them. Our guests will sit there.

Most of us will choose our own unmarked tables. These will be round tables, each seating 10. The number registered for the Squadron Dinner is 165.

It will be a 3 course dinner. For entrees there is seafood strudel with lemon hollandaise or pork and peach satay on rice with chilli glaze. For main course there is cashew coated sea perch with mandarin sauce; apricot and bacon filled rolled loin of lamb with marmalade and ginger glaze; or oven baked sirloin of beef with port, mushroom and pepper sauce. Dessert is triple berry brandy snap cone or chocolate roulade with berry coulis. Then tea or coffee with mints.

Colin (Mc)Hutchinson will farewell us with a suitable pibroch. The courtesy buses leave for Tanunda via Yaldara Hotel at 11 pm and 11.30 pm.

THE SERGEANTS MESS

This is your Club for the duration and that applies to everyone, whether staying at the Yaldara Motel or not.

Its location has already been given on Page 1.

It is a spacious, comfortable complex with many pleasing features.

Beyond its impressive panelled bar is a games room with a full-size billiard/pool table, table tennis table and dart board.

The fully stocked bar will be staffed on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 6.30 pm to 10.30 pm and at other times by arrangement.

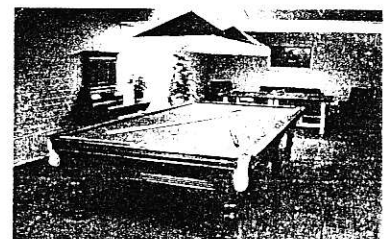

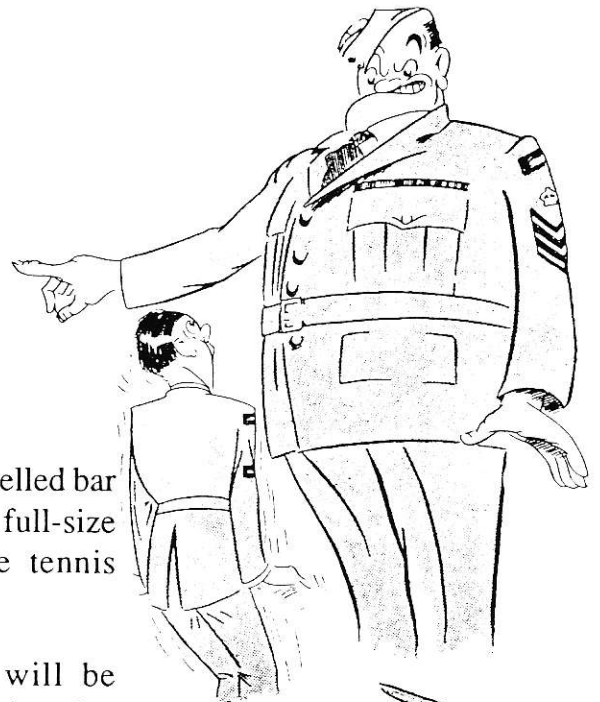

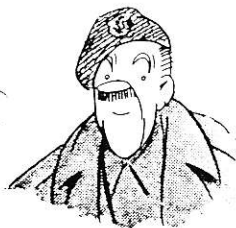

A sure browsing point will be the 458 Squadron Display organised by Syd and Pat Bartram.

A working model of a Wimpey will be part of that display. It was skilfully crafted by John Excell.

Squadron Maps and Place Mats will be on show and for sale.

The Games Room

TRANSPORT

If you need advice on or help with transport, contact any SA Flight member. They are all well briefed on the matter.

THE 458 COACHES

Those of you who have booked transport from Adelaide to Lyndoch/Tanunda and back have already been advised of times of departure and pick-up points in Adelaide on Sunday afternoon, October 20.

Those same coaches will leave the motels/hotel around 10.30 am on Friday, October 25, for the return trip to Adelaide so as to arrive there in time for airport and other departures.

Departure times of the four coaches going to RAAF Edinburgh on Monday and to Renmark on Wednesday are given on pages 2 and 8 respectively.

Kevin Tait is Transport Officer. He and all other SA Flight members will be able to advise you what coaches to take. We will also have lists of names posted in the Sergeants Mess and the offices of the Tanunda motels and hotel.

There is a courtesy coach available for travel between Tanunda and Lyndoch and return for the Night Winery Tour and Bistro Dinner on Tuesday evening and two more for the Squadron Dinner on Thursday evening. Times of departure for these are given on Pages 2 and 8 respectively.

PRIVATE CARS

For those without their own private transport there will be no problem. Most are billeted at Yaldara. There are seven couples at Barossa Motor Lodge and one person at Hotel Tanunda. However there will be plenty of cars at these three places — 24 to be exact — and, in particular

..... there are five SA Flight members in Rooms 21 to 25 of the Barossa Motor Lodge — Bill Cribb, John Excell, Bert Oliver, Bert Ravenscroft and Transport Officer, Kevin Tait — all of them concerned to help with transport.

BAROSSA SIGHTSEEING AND SHOPPING

Herzlich Willkommen!

That means you are truly made welcome when you visit the world famous 'Valley of the Vine'.

The Barossa Valley is wineries — there are 33 of them listed below.

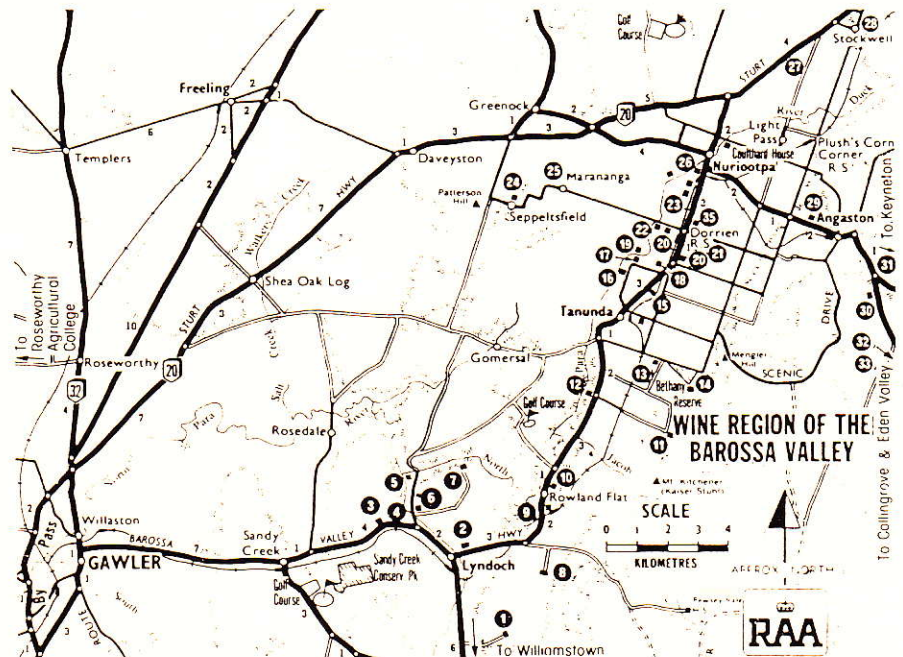

The Barossa Valley is beautiful old blue stone cottages, thatched roof barns, gracious old homes and elegant Lutheran churches with delicate spires etching the sky.

The Barossa Valley is a variety of good restaurants, museums, and craft shops, butcher shops with German meats — and we challenge you to walk past one of Barossa's famous bakeries without at least turning your head to take in the aroma of fresh baked German bread.

In the pocket of your folder and also in the Sergeants Mess you will find useful information about places to see in the Barossa. Your motels/hotel can advise you on what local tours are available.
